

Health and Community

Prominence is a well-established and trusted partner to health and community services across the public, private and not-for-profit sectors.

We understand that patient care and outcomes are the most important concern of our clients. We know that maximising community health and wellbeing requires collaborative responses. Along with our clients, we are driven to improve patient care and outcomes.

Our team consists of multidisciplinary Australian Health Practitioners Regulation Agency (AHPRA) registered clinicians and healthcare leaders. All have deep experience through the acute, disability, community and aged care sectors. Drawing on years of frontline experience, our specialist consultants navigate solutions to the complex problems faced by the health and community sectors.

Why Prominence?

We know that maximising community health and wellbeing requires collaborative responses.

Our work in action

BOARD PERFORMANCE AND GOVERNANCE REVIEWS FOR HOSPITAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

Prominence has conducted many independent board performance and governance reviews for Hospital and Health Service Boards. Using qualitative and quantitative methods, we benchmark against relevant legislation and governance models, tailoring our approach for each engagement. Our findings ensure ongoing performance improvement.

CULTURE, WORKFORCE PLANNING AND ORGANISATIONAL DESIGN

Prominence recognises the crucial link between a positive culture, workforce planning and organisational design for building optimal organisations. Our strategic, collaborative and data-driven approach fosters success and alignment with organisational goals and has benefitted numerous hospital and health services.

OUR CLIENTS HAVE INCLUDED:

- Queensland Health and the Hospital and Health Services
- Primary Health Networks
- Centacare
- BaptistCare
- Uniting Care
- Queensland Fire and Emergency Services
